STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL SOLVENCY

(THIS FORM IS NECESSARY FOR ADMISSIONS)

STUDENT SECTION

Students of Access International:

I, _____, certify that I am financially solvent and able to pursue a full-time course of
student's name studies at Access International. I understand that I will only study while in the United States and that I have no intention whatsoever of seeking employment in America or accepting a work offer while I am here/there in accordance with rules set forth by Homeland Security. I further state that I understand that my tuition at Access International must be paid by the first day of classes and that I may not ask for any type of tuition reduction for any reason whatsoever. By signing this document I commit to paying the first term of tuition at Access International upon my arrival in the United States on an F-1 student visa assigned to Access International, even if I decide not to attend Access International upon my arrival. This is because I understand that Access International, in preparation for my arrival, will schedule and contract instructors and classroom facilities for my education, and pay administrative staff and recruiting staff (and recruiting resource fees) to manage all details of my application to the school, including Homeland Security SEVIS (Student and Exchange Visitor Information System) reporting and student visa file maintenance. I also understand that Access International has the right and obligation to report to Homeland Security any violation of the rules and regulations set forth for international students in Homeland Security codes. (Do not sign this document unless you understand and agree to all of the above.)

SPONSOR SECTION

I, _____, _____, of _____ certify that sponsor's name relationship student's name _____ is able to pursue a full-time course of studies at Access International.
student's name

I understand that the student named above will only study while in the United States. I confirm that he/she has no intention whatsoever of seeking employment in America or accepting a work offer while he/she is here/there in accordance with the rules set forth for international students by Homeland Security. I further state that I will be personally responsible for paying the abovementioned student's tuition at Access International by the first day of class for all terms and that there will be no type of tuition reduction for any reason whatsoever. As the student sponsor, I also understand that I am committed to paying the first term of tuition upon the sponsored student's arrival in the United States on an F-1 student visa assigned to Access International regardless of whether he/she decides to attend classes upon arrival, as explained above in the Student Section. I understand that Access International has the right and obligation to report to Homeland Security any violation of the rules and regulations set forth for students in Homeland Security codes. (Do not sign this document unless you agree to all of the above.)

I, _____, assume full financial responsibility for the abovementioned student's tuition.
